

Human Reproduction Year 7

End point 2 and 3: Describe what happened during fertilisation and describe the steps of pregnancy from fertilisation to birth

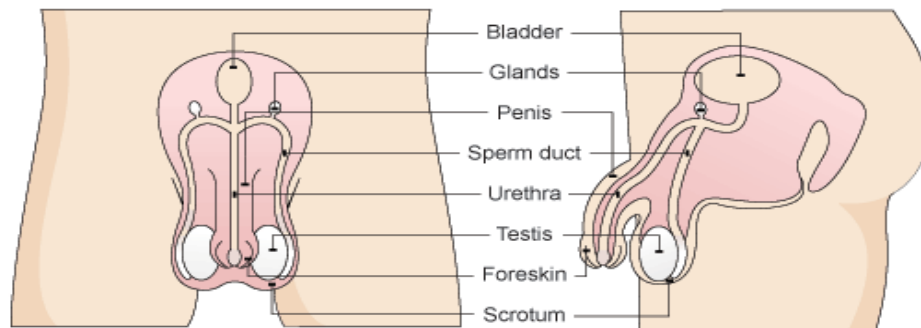

End point 4 : Describe the menstrual cycle

Stages of development during pregnancy. In humans the female is pregnant for 9 months. During that time the baby has grown from the first cell after fertilisation to a fully formed baby.

End point 1 : Identify the parts of both the male reproductive system

End point 1 : Identify the parts of both the female reproductive system

