Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, The Dean Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- Raising the concern or complaint in writing to the Head Teacher Mrs H Rowlands.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Head of Centre

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Submit a formal complaint to the Head of Centre. The formal complaint must be made in writing and outline the grounds of the complaint with details of what conduct occurred to warrant the complaint.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The Head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and the conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 2 working weeks.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- •
Complete a complaints appeals form (contact the Exam Officer to receive this form).

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 5 working days.

The appeal will be referred to:

- The appeal will be referred to the Chair of Governors (or a special Committee of the Governing body) for consideration..

It will be the responsibility of to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
